Hello Parents and Dancers it has been a very busy and crazy month of October and we are already into November. We are not sure where the time has gone! We have enjoyed getting to know all of our new families and dancers this year!

We have so many events coming up we are looking forward to. We are headed to Disneyland with our older Performance Team class Nov 18th-22nd to perform! We are super excited about this trip and what to remind everyone that there will be no class the week of Thanksgiving November 20th-25th. After this our first competition of the year for our Performance Teams will be Saturday, December 2nd. Then we head into our all new winter production of “The Polar Express”!

Thanksgiving Break-The studio will be closed for the Thanksgiving Holiday Monday, November 20TH through Saturday, November 25th. Have a GREAT Thanksgiving!!!!

Remember if you are part of the main cast of “Polar Express” you will have rehearsal on Sunday, November 26th from 8:00-10:00am.

Costume Fees Due Dec 1ST!

Yes! It is that time a year again. Time to order costumes for our Spring Shows!!!!!! We must order costumes over winter break and into the first of January to guarantee they are in for our picture week in May. Dancer’s will be getting measured in class during the month of December.

Please keep in mind that costume fees for the upcoming 2023 Spring Recitals are due December 1ST, 2023. Any costume fees not paid by December 15th will be ran with the card on file on December 15th!

Costume fees are as follows:
